TOURISM & HOSPITALITY

Our team has experience across the spectrum of tourism and hospitality businesses, serviced from our four offices in Aberdeen, Dundee, Edinburgh and Glasgow. Our core compliance offering is enhanced by our specialist tax planning service, ensuring that where appropriate you make the best use of tax and VAT reliefs available in the sector.

We can also assist you with business improvement advice and can support you with your expansion and diversification plans. Our employment tax team can help you navigate the different employment tax treatments for seasonal, flexible, part and full time employees.

We have enjoyed an excellent relationship with Henderson Loggie for years and we have always been impressed by the team's expertise and understanding of our business. They have a personal, proactive approach to assisting us, whatever our needs.

Euan MacGregor, Director of Finance
St Andrews Links Trust

"Henderson Loggie provide the full range of audit, accountancy, tax and VAT services to Dundee Rep and Scottish Dance Theatre and most recently, with their specialist tax input, we were able to claim back a significant amount of Theatre Tax Relief to fund future productions. Henderson Loggie is one of our key business partners, with a thorough understanding of our complex operating model. I have no hesitation in recommending them."

Nick Parr, Chief Executive
Dundee Rep and Scottish Dance Theatre
